

Douglas County School District

Douglas County School District is one of the highest performing school districts in the state of Colorado and has earned a reputation of excellence in all aspects of the organization. This fast growing district of 56,000 students is located 15 miles south of Denver along the Front Range of the Colorado Rockies. The Board of Education is seeking a reform-minded and collaborative leader who will continue to build on the outstanding programs currently available to students. A highly competitive compensation package will be offered.
